

The Girls Are Getting Together

Chicky Net is a web-based girls-only social network dedicated to connecting women living in Thailand. It provides women with a platform to freely share their thoughts, recommendations and experiences. Perhaps most importantly of all, it is a place to make friends and have lots of fun!

How did it all begin?

Chicky Net Phuket was founded in Phuket in March 2009. The reason for its creation was the realization of how difficult it is to meet women on the island. Turns out, a lot of women felt the same way and the response to the network was phenomenal. In its short existence we now have over 258 members and growing by the day.

The wonderful thing about the website is that it is run by the members themselves. They are encouraged to load their own events ranging from dinners and dancing to picnics and sailing trips. Even though the network itself is girls-only, most of the events are open to men.

Our active discussion forum is a place where girls can give each other tips on where to go and what to do. Several special interest groups have been formed by ladies who want to get together include: The Yummy Mummies who organize play dates for their children, Dancing Girls who salsa weekly, The Dog Walking Group, Dinner Club, Gardening Girls, Sports & Exercise and Charity/Fundraising. The ladies then set up their own events and communicate within the groups.

The future plans for Chicky Net are to have a local network to log into wherever you go. We have recently launched in Chiang Mai (www.chickynetchiangmai.ning.com) Koh Samui (www.chickynetkohsamui.ning.com) and Bangkok (www.chickynetbangkok.ning.com) Next stop, The World!

Imagine you were visiting, or moving to, a new city, and could simply login to the local Chicky Net network available and join the girls for brunch! Wouldn't it be wonderful to have access to all the relevant local information you need provided by the girls who live there!
